

BLUE
(a. aparicio)

When I was young and in my prime
I didn't care if I lived or died.
But as I grow old and get cold,
I don't want to be alone.
I'm running scared I'm running high
And when you come I run and hide.
And when I know that you're alone
I ring the bell and run for home.

Here's one for me , this one's for you
For when you're down and feeling blue.
Looking for leaves by the sea
Looking for seashells by the trees.
I lost my way without your guide
I lost my soul without your eyes.
Come back to me. Come back to me –
And look for seashells by the sea.

BRIDGE

So kindly tell me what I'm doing here.
Drowning in my pool of tears.
I don't want to walk these sands alone
So won't you carry me on my throne.

Give me your strength and all your glow
All you knew and all you know.
Give me this and give that
Give me my love now
Give it back.
What to do and what to say
When to laugh and when to pray.
Thanks for the cry
Thanks for the hope
Thanks for one great show.
